A two-person fragrance wish-list swap before gift shopping

Two printable fragrance preference cards. Use the free printable with the steps below. Compare the optional supply only if you need it.

Materials: Two printed preference cards; pens; recipient's input; optional existing scent reference

1. Ask for preferences

Give each person a card and ask which scent notes or formats they enjoy and which they avoid. 'I am not sure' is a useful answer. Do not turn a familiar note name into a promise that a particular fragrance will suit them.

2. Compare the actual listing

Check the exact scent, mist or perfume format, volume, bottle count, ingredients, seller and return information on the selected listing before purchasing. FigureNook has not smelled or worn it.

3. Keep the wish list flexible

Use the card to record several possibilities or ask the recipient to choose directly. Sampling may help if an appropriate option is available, but it is not promised or included. A thoughtful preference check can be more useful than a surprise blind purchase.

Read the exact label, ingredients and directions. FigureNook has not smelled or worn these products and makes no longevity, health or skin-suitability claims.

Your printable workspace

Fragrance wish list

Notes I like

Notes I avoid

Preferred format

Possibilities / recipient choice

Fragrance wish list

Notes I like

Notes I avoid

Preferred format

Possibilities / recipient choice

Notes liked / notes avoided

Preferred format / volume

Exact listing / seller / recipient choice

Check the selected fragrance label and the recipient's preferences.