Color-in Thanksgiving name cards for the kids' table

Printable coloring place cards. Use this planning sheet with the full guide.

1. Print the colouring cards

Use the leaf-and-acorn name cards on the PDF at actual size. Check the printer's paper-weight limit before loading cardstock. Print a trial sheet and cut along the solid outer lines.

2. Colour before folding

Offer age-appropriate pencils or markers and supervise cutting. Let each child add a name or ask an adult to write it. The small motifs are simple outlines, with plenty of blank room for colouring.

3. Set a safe table

Fold along dashed lines and stand cards away from food and flames. Keep scissors and small scraps off the dining table. No purchase or sign-up is needed for the printable.

Supervise cutting, use age-appropriate coloring supplies and keep paper and small scraps away from food, flames and young children.
